Financial Literacy for Iowa's Middle and High School Students

Oct. 28, 2014 | 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

SANTA MARIA VINEYARD BANQUET FACILITIES
218 W. 6TH ST. | CARROLL, IA 51401

Join the TS Institute and the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis for a day-long professional development program titled “Financial Literacy for Middle and High School Classrooms.”

Topics for the program include earning income, spending and saving, credit, and investing. Each session will include classroom content and will offer tools that you can use the next day in your classroom. The resources will include lesson plans, whiteboard applications, videos, and more. All resources meet the Iowa Core Curriculum 21st Century Skills standards.

We encourage you to bring your laptops.

There is no charge for the program, but registration is required. Lunch will be provided.

Register at www.stlouisfed.org/event4D5C.

Our materials are aligned with the Common Core State Standards, National Standards for Economics and National Standards in Personal Finance.

Presenters include Joanne Kuster, president of DynaMinds Publishing and chairperson of Iowa Money Smart Week; and Mary Suiter, assistant vice president and economic education officer at the St. Louis Fed.
